👁 7   ✓ 0   ★ 1

Chapter 1 by Anumita Roy Chowdhary

Raziya al-Din (1205-October 13, 1240) ,throne name-Jalat ud-Din -Raziya was not only the first ever woman who ruled over India but also the only woman who ruled over Delhi.

Brought up and trained like any other prince of her time by her father Sultan Iltimush . She was chosen over her brothers by the sultan as his successor. The historic decision by the sultan left an everlasting imprint in Indian history. Razia was not only an able ruler but also a shrewd politician who always kept a check on her ministers and other political associates to avoid any conspiracy against , well aware of the narrow minded society of that time which considered women as an inferior species.

But her fate was sealed, her heart,Malik-ikhtiar ud-din Altunia became the reason behind her death and the downfall of the Delhi Sultanate.
